Kevin publishes section notes online. These notes are FANTASTIC, and I thank him so so much for it. In the future, I will look to take a class that he TFs. He also publishes full solutions to homework assignments. All in all, he gives so much great material to learn from. Cannot recommend him more.

One of the best TFs I've had: was really nice (he baked brownies to make up for having section right before Thanksgiving!), readily answers questions (and knows the material really well), is one of the few TFs I've seen who uses Piazza effectively (actually answers all of the questions almost as soon as they're posted, is very thorough with his answers), goes overtime for office hours so that we can keep bugging him with questions. His section notes are pretty useful; sometimes, they can be a bit dense (maybe put a little more margin room or more spacing, so easier to take notes on?), but he clarifies things really well during section. Other than that, a really excellent TF.

Great section materials, better than the one used for class.

Sections (and associated notes) were a very thorough and clear resource.

Kevin's the best. He has written up the most comprehensive and clear notes, and his sections are the same. His use of Piazza helped me tremendously with learning the material: often times others' questions are not useful at the time they are asked, but they are useful later (say, when studying for the exam). Piazza also ensures that Kevin's answers are written down for review later. Kevin's also dedicated, with very fast response times on Piazza. I wish Kevin would TF all of my future classes.
